

Gültekin Bayır – Juror / Turkey

Gültekin Bayır, born on November 7, 1968, in Istanbul, Turkey, is a distinguished Turkish photographer, director, and screenwriter with a career spanning over three decades. He began his professional journey in the field of photography, working both in the press industry and as a freelance artist across various countries.

Since 1986, Bayır has been actively involved in the film and television industry, contributing in multiple creative roles, including screenwriter, director of photography, and director of TV programs. His deep understanding of visual storytelling and his versatile artistic background have made him a respected figure in Turkish media and cinema.

In 2018, he wrote and directed the feature film Bir Denizcinin Doğum Günü (The Birthday of a Sailor), which was officially selected for the Kazan International Film Festival. His work in film is complemented by extensive collaborations in theatre and television, further showcasing his broad creative reach.

In addition to his artistic pursuits, Bayır serves as the General Director and board member of Mert Döküm, a company based in Istanbul. He remains actively engaged with his audience by sharing his photography and film projects on platforms like Instagram and Twitter.

Combining his passion for cinema and photography with an ongoing commitment to artistic exploration, Gültekin Bayır continues to make a meaningful impact on the Turkish cultural landscape and beyond.